

Every morning in Africa a gazelle wakes up. It knows it must run faster than the fastest lion or it will be killed and eaten . . .*

Every morning in Africa a lion wakes up. The lion knows it must outrun the slowest gazelle or it will starve in a very painful death . . .*

. . . so, it really doesn't matter whether you are a lion or a gazelle -- when the sun comes up, you had better be running. - Dan Montano, the Economist, 1985
